

Rating Action: Moody's Ratings downgrades The Phoenix Insurance Company's IFSR to Baa1 following sovereign rating action, outlook remains negative

9 October 2024

London, October 9, 2024 - Moody's Ratings (Moody's) has today downgraded to Baa1 from A2 the insurance financial strength ratings (IFSRs) of The Phoenix Insurance Company Ltd. (Phoenix Insurance). Phoenix Insurance is the principal insurance operating subsidiary of Phoenix Financial Ltd. (Phoenix, or Group), a diversified financial services group based in Israel. The outlook remains negative.

Today's rating action follows the downgrade on the Government of Israel's issuer rating to Baa1 from A2, with a negative outlook, on 27 September 2024. For further information on the sovereign rating action, please refer to our press release: "Moody's Ratings downgrades Israel's ratings to Baa1, maintains negative outlook" (<https://ratings.moody's.com/ratings-news/429502>).

RATINGS RATIONALE

The IFSR downgrade and negative outlook on Phoenix Insurance reflects the weakening credit profile of the Israeli government, as indicated by the two notch downgrade of the Government of Israel's issuer rating to Baa1 from A2 and the continuation of the negative outlook. We believe that, longer term, Israel's economy will be more durably weakened by the military conflict than previously expected, potentially leading to some pressure on Phoenix's financial profile.

We consider its credit fundamentals (profitability, asset quality, capitalisation and financial flexibility) to be correlated with - and thus linked to - the economic and market conditions in Israel, where Phoenix is domiciled, and derives its revenues and earnings. Moreover, Phoenix's investments are predominantly in domestic Israeli assets, including government bonds, corporate bonds and equities. At 30 June 2024, around 78% of its Nostro (shareholder) investments were held in a range of domestic assets (around 23% of which were designated government bonds[1] that specifically support guaranteed yield liabilities) amounting to around 227% of the Group shareholders' equity (approximately 160% without the designated government bonds).

The insurer's capital and liquidity buffers are substantial, resilient to a range of stress scenarios, including volatility in invested assets, and position Phoenix to absorb significant stress in the operating environment and on asset prices. However, we believe that the level of uncertainty, fluidity and downside risk inherent in the current operating environment preclude the insurer from being rated above the sovereign at this juncture.

Phoenix Insurance has maintained strong solvency and liquidity and continued to generate solid earnings since the start of the military conflict in October 2023, which is reflected in the resilience of its standalone credit profile which remains unchanged at an A2 score before the sovereign constraint.

FACTORS THAT COULD LEAD TO AN UPGRADE OR DOWNGRADE OF THE RATINGS

Phoenix Insurance's ratings could be downgraded in the event of a further downgrade on the sovereign rating.

The outlook could be changed back to stable if the sovereign rating is affirmed with stable outlook or we consider that deterioration in the economy and operating environment will not have a material or sustained negative impact on Phoenix Insurance.

REGULATORY DISCLOSURES

For further specification of Moody's key rating assumptions and sensitivity analysis, see the sections Methodology Assumptions and Sensitivity to Assumptions in the disclosure form. Moody's Rating Symbols and Definitions can be found on <https://ratings.moody.com/rating-definitions>.

For any affected securities or rated entities receiving direct credit support/credit substitution from another entity or entities subject to a credit rating action (the supporting entity), and whose ratings may change as a result of a credit rating action as to the supporting entity, the associated regulatory disclosures will relate to the supporting entity. Exceptions to this approach may be applicable in certain jurisdictions.

For ratings issued on a program, series, category/class of debt or security, certain regulatory disclosures applicable to each rating of a subsequently issued bond or note of the same series, category/class of debt, or security, or pursuant to a program for which the ratings are derived exclusively from existing ratings, in accordance with Moody's rating practices, can be found in the most recent Credit Rating Announcement related to the same class of Credit Rating.

For provisional ratings, the Credit Rating Announcement provides certain regulatory disclosures in relation to the provisional rating assigned, and in relation to a definitive rating that may be assigned subsequent to the final issuance of the debt, in each case where the transaction structure and terms have not changed prior to the assignment of the definitive rating in a manner that would have affected the rating.

Moody's does not always publish a separate Credit Rating Announcement for each Credit Rating assigned in the Anticipated Ratings Process or Subsequent Ratings Process.

These ratings are solicited. Please refer to Moody's Policy for Designating and Assigning Unsolicited Credit Ratings available on its website <https://ratings.moody.com>.

Regulatory disclosures contained in this press release apply to the credit rating and, if applicable, the related rating outlook or rating review.

The Global Scale Credit Rating(s) discussed in this Credit Rating Announcement was(were) issued by one of Moody's affiliates outside the EU and is(are) endorsed for use in the EU in accordance with the EU CRA Regulation.
